What:

City Dionysia is an unprecedented inter-arts festival sponsored by the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs and the Department of Visual and Performing Arts. Reflecting the Ancient Greek Festival that it is named for, City Dionysia arises out of the THEATREWORKS/VAPA production of The Bacchae by Euripides. The various performances and installations of City Dionysia explore the idea of ecstasy and despair and, especially the space between those two extremes... the place where one turns to the other. The myth of Dionysus allows for myriad interpretation since he, the god, seems to actively skirt the line between destruction and creation, between boyish revelry and blasphemous sexuality.

THE EVENTS:

City Dionysia Opening at GOCA121: Evening reception amidst the artwork at UCCS's new downtown gallery. Featuring the Dionysian installation, Emergence, by local artist De Lane Bredvik with assistance from UCCS's acting classes. UCCS Professor Corey Drieth will also be showing work. Professor Landis will give a short talk on City Dionysia and there will be live music provided by UCCS musicians. Plus, a wine tasting from the experts at Swirl Wine Emporium in Manitou Springs. Limited availability. Reservations are necessary. For reservations, call 719.255.3232.

MOAN: Pleasure and Pain: Taking inspiration from a sound that straddles pleasure and pain, Moan features art work in a variety of media by UCCS Visual Art faculty and students as a part of the City Dionysia Festival. A maelstrom of violence, The Bacchae is a potent source for examining the heart of revelry, intoxication, and vengeance.

The Bacchae- Euripides' dark account of Pentheus, The King of Thebes and his complex relationship with the vengeful god Dionysus. Presented with original music from the music department and designed by students and professionals from THEATREWORKS and UCCS, The Bacchae will be a visceral experience in which the audience is placed in the middle of the action. For tickets prices and to purchase tickets, visit www.theatreworkscs.org
The Dusty Loo Bon Vivant Theatre/THEATREWORKS; 1420 Austin Bluffs Pkwy; 719.255.3232; www.theatreworkscs.org
March 11-13 and 18-20 7:30 pm. Matinee Performances March 13 and 20 @ 2:00pm and March 14 and 21 @ 4:00pm.

Twice-born Dionysia and the Wild Women: In conjunction with The Bacchae, Dr. Suzanne MacAulay, Chair of the Department of Visual and Performing Arts, will present a talk that explores the origins of myths and rituals associated with the cult of Dionysus in Greece and Asia Minor, including a discussion of the archaeology of drink based on recent Bronze Age research. It is believed that fermented beverages are one of the earliest and most inventive achievements of human endeavor. Thoughts about the importance of first beer, and then wine, to Bacchic celebration provide an interesting prelude to viewing The Bacchae.
The Dusty Loo Bon Vivant Theatre/THEATREWORKS; 1420 Austin Bluffs Pkwy. March 14th @ 2:30 pm.

City D Poetry Slams: Surrounded by art, students will slam about topics related to the Bacchanalian themes. The second slam will precede the Cuong Vu concert at the Fine Arts Center (see below).

The UCCS Upper Lodge; 1420 Austin Bluffs Parkway; 719.255.3567; www.galleryuccs.org April 9th @ 7:00 pm.

Cuong Vu Concert: VAPA and the music department are proud to host Cuong Vu for the City Dionysia festival. Vu is a Grammy award winning trumpet virtuoso and will join us, with his band, on April 7th. UCCS's students will present a Poetry Slam before the concert. $7 general, $5 student.
The Fine Arts Center; 30 West Dale Street, 719.634.5583; csfineartscenter.org, April 7 @ 8:00 pm.

City Dionysia Parade: The closing event of City Dionysia, the parade will include five UCCS arts classes coming together for a mad procession of revelry and art. Participants include beginning acting students, creators or wearable art, professors and more. Parade will begin outside THEATREWORKS/University Hall, proceed through campus, down the hill through the woods and end at the new University Village Shopping Center for the opening of... (April 16th, 3:00 pm)

HedoGeist: A collaborative video installation by UCCS students Kevin Beechwood, Kim Ferderer, Daniela Oettinger-Furr, Kiersten Orr, Rob Painter, Thomas Swiech, and Ashley Thompson. This multifaceted work explores the themes of hedonism, propriety, and Zeitgeist.
On exhibit at the University Village Colorado, opening Friday, April 16th at the conclusion of the City Dionysia Parade (~4:30 pm).
